Re: FOIA ID/LR-2013-0769

Dear Mr. Morisy:

This is in response to your electronic FOIA request, dated September 1, 2013, and received in this Office on September 3, 2013, in which you seek a copy of the most recent contract between the National Labor Relations Board and GovDelivery for Digital Communication Management services, and recent invoices and reports for this service.

Your request is denied. According to the records of the Agency's Acquisition Management Branch, the Agency has no contract with GovDelivery for Digital Communication Management services and thus has no responsive documents.

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category B as a representative of the news media in that you qualify as a person actively gathering news for an entity that is organized or operated to publish or broadcast news to the public, NLRB Rules and Regulations, Section 102.117(d)(1)(vii). Consistent with this fee category, you will be assessed charges to recover the full direct costs of duplicating the records sought, but only for those pages in excess of 100 pages. NLRB Rules and Regulations, Section 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(C). The photoduplication charges for all categories of requesters are: 12¢ per page. NLRB Rules and Regulations, Section 102.117(d)(2)(i).

Because there are no documents to be photoduplicated, there are no charges for processing this request.

The undersigned is responsible for the above determination. You may obtain a review thereof under the provisions of the NLRB's Rules and Regulations, Section 102.117(c)(2)(v), by filing an appeal with the Division of Legal Counsel, National Labor Relations Board, Washington, D.C., 1099 14th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20570, within 28 calendar days of the date of this letter, such period beginning to run on the calendar day after the date of this letter. Thus, the appeal must be received by the close of business at 5:00 p.m. (ET) on October 9, 2013. Any appeal should contain a complete statement of the reasons upon which it is based. Questions concerning an appeal of this determination should be directed to the Division of Legal Counsel. For questions concerning this letter, please call Diane Bridge, FOIA Supervisor, at (202) 273-3851.

Sincerely,
